TEXICAN COURT NAMED IN USA TODAY'S "TEN BUCKET-LIST HOTELS IN THE DALLAS AREA WORTH TRAVELING FOR"

IRVING, TEXAS (Dec. 2, 2019) – Texican Court, by Valencia Hotel Group, was just announced among USA Today's "Ten Bucket-List Hotels In The Dallas Area Worth Traveling For." The relaxed luxury urban retreat opened in November 2018.

USA Today's 10BEST says, "This retro-cool boutique hotel is a unique and surprisingly affordable retreat across from the Toyota Music Factory entertainment venue in the Las Colinas area of Irving. Each of the 152, pet-friendly rooms and suites feature plush pillow top beds, custom luxury bath amenities, 50" flat screens, free WiFi, coffee/tea makers and 1950's style SMEG refrigerators stocked with snacks and beverages. Other perks include free parking, a complimentary continental breakfast buffet, live music on weekends, loaner bikes, a hip Mexican restaurant, a tequila bar and a 24-hour fitness center. Just like the motor courts of yore, guests will also find a circular pool set in the center of the property, complete with multiple courtyards, firepits and outdoor games."

Contributing writer Ilene Jacobs further said that Texican Court is recommended because, "If you want to avoid cookie-cutter chains, this one-of-a-kind property will be well worth your stay."

"Texican Court has proven to be a popular boutique hotel that is perfect for business and leisure," said General Manager John Thomas. "It is located in the Irving Entertainment District across the street from the Irving Convention Center and Toyota Music Factory in the luxury community of Las Colinas in North Irving. Texican Court is a destination offering guests a unique experience, authentic food and beverage and relaxed deluxe guest rooms and suites."
